2. Role of Compliance Officer

- 2.1 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information", pre-clearing of trades of Designated Employees, monitoring of trades and the implementation of this Code under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 2.2. The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of the Specified persons and any changes made in the list of Specified Persons.
- 2.3. The Compliance Officer shall assist Specified Persons including the Designated Employees and/or all Employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Code.
- 2.4. The Compliance Officer shall report on the compliance and implementation of the Regulations and the Code to the Board and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board as and when directed by the Board or Audit Committee.

3. Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the Specified Persons's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

3.2 Need to Know:

- (i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

3.3 Limited access to confidential information

The Specified Persons shall be obligated to maintain the confidentiality of information available to them and would therefore take necessary steps for safeguarding the information including the following:

- Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure.
- Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

4. Prevention of misuse of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

Specified Persons including Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

4.1 Trading Plan

Any Specified Person shall be entitle to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

4.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Specified Person is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Specified Person shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

4.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

4.6 No Specified Person shall trade in securities when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

5. Trading Window and Window Closure

- 5.1 (i) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.
- (ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 (Seven) days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.
- (iii) When the trading window is closed, the Specified Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period.
- (iv) All Specified Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

5.2 The "Trading Window" with respect to the Company's Securities shall be closed at the time of:-

- a. Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual)

- b. Declaration of dividends (interim and final)
 - c. Issue of Securities by way of public / rights / bonus etc. or any change in capital structure.
 - d. Amalgamation, demergers, mergers, takeovers, acquisitions, delistings, disposal of substantial assets, expansion of business, buy-back and other such transactions;
 - e. Changes in Key Managerial Personnel
 - f. Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking
 - g. Material events in accordance with the listing agreement.
- 5.3 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Specified Persons of the Company when he determines that a Specified Person or class of Specified Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- 5.4 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 5.5 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

6 Pre-clearance of trades

- 6.1 All Specified Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is above 5000 shares, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no Specified Persons shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Specified Person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:
- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
 - (ii) An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable: (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking. (b) That in case the Specified Person has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public. (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time. (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
 - (iii) The pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if any shall in the form prescribed in (Annexure 3)

- (iv) All Specified Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The Specified Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure 4).
- (v) If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.
- (vi) All Specified Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above Specified Persons shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

- (vii) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

7 Other Restrictions

- 7.1 Every public disclosure under this Chapter shall be made in such form as may be specified.
- 7.2 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- 7.3 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
